

January 14, 2008

Dear Commodore:

Seabacs is pleased to introduce our Bridge Officers for 2008:

Commodore	George Wilson
Vice Commodore	Pieter Rooker
Secretary	Hiram Bentancourt
Treasurer	Steve Shroud
Jr. Past Commodore	Cathy Petite
Fleet Captain	Craig Waffle

Seabacs is also pleased to extend our friendship and reciprocal moorage privileges to your officers and members for the year 2008 and continued until revoked.

The Seabacs reciprocal moorage is at the Brownsville Marina located on the Kitsap Peninsula about 4 miles South of the Agate Pass bridge and 7 miles North of Bremerton. Seabacs offers up to two nights moorage for visiting reciprocal yacht clubs on the Brownsville Marina Guest Dock. Visiting reciprocal club members are requested to pay the moorage fee to the harbormaster and mail the moorage receipt to Seabacs for reimbursment. Guests will be responsible for electricity charges.

Please see our website www.seabacs.org for more information about our club and activities.

We look forward to seeing you on the water in 2008.

Sincerely,

Pieter Rooker
Vice Commodore
